

VENDOR/CONTRACTOR
CODE OF ETHICS
FOR PARTICIPANTS IN THE
COMPREHENSIVE PURCHASING CONSORTIUM
OF THE
CAROLINAS COUNCIL OF HOUSING,
REDEVELOPMENT & CODES OFFICIALS

As a Contractor/Vendor in the Comprehensive Purchasing Consortium (CPC) program, we shall:

1. Conduct CPC business affairs in full compliance with all applicable state and federal regulations.
2. Not willfully engage in any conduct or action that would constitute fraud, collusion, misrepresentation, any activity in violation of applicable federal or state procurement regulations, or standards of ethical behavior.
3. Not discuss prices, discounts, customers, compensation schedules, or any other activity that would constitute restraint of trade or anti-trust violation consistent with applicable state and federal statutes.
4. Serve as an educational resource to public and Indian housing agencies as a means of providing state of the art goods and services for use by PHAs/IHAs.
5. Recognize that a firm's attitude and activities are represented by each individual who is associated with that firm.
6. Deal fairly and honestly with all customers and clients.
7. Be familiar with this Code of Ethics, and insure that all employees at no time infringe or abuse the public trust.
8. Act in good faith to resolve amicably any dispute of any kind, which may arise with the PHA/IHA CPC customer.
